

Mayoral Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the Dare to be Aware Fair began in 2008 at the Mitchell Park Conservancy Domes. Growing every year, the fair moved to Alverno College in 2016 to accommodate more than 100 exhibitors, 14 workshops, and 1,000 attendees; and
- WHEREAS, they outgrew Alverno and chose the Brookfield Conference Center as a beautiful environment well-suited to the event's focus on natural well-being and growth. Excitement is building about returning to Brookfield in May 2024; and
- WHEREAS, their mission is to bring together the community of holistic wellness and personal growth product and service providers in a beautiful environment; and
- WHEREAS, the Dare to be Aware Fair provides people who would not usually be aware of these products and services an opportunity to become aware of them in an inexpensive way; and
- WHEREAS, the Fair is growing in popularity every year; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Brookfield welcomes the Dare to be Aware Fair to the Brookfield Conference Center.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steven V. Ponto, Mayor of the City of Brookfield, on behalf of all the residents of this community, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 11, 2024 as in the City of Brookfield.

DARE TO BE AWARE DAY

Signed and sealed this 31st day of January, in the year Two Thousand and Twenty-Four.

Steven V. Ponto, MAYOR
City of Brookfield
